

CHAD HUGHES

was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota and lived in Chicago, Illinois, Hollywood, California, New York City, and is currently living as a resident in Toronto, Canada. All of his life, music has been his passion. He is a classically trained pianist now recording pop music. He loves performing live and combining new age schematics, videos, fashion and experimental ideas inspired from living in this creative world. His goal; to write and perform great pop music for radio and the universe. Music that people can dance to, sing to: and be inspired from.

CHAD HUGHES performs pop- electro, global friendly music. He has performed at such venues in Toronto as The Courthouse twice; first The 'Make a Wish' Foundation Charity Gala, and second as the opening act for hip-hop artist and dj 'K-OS' and Evan Biddells fashion show. He as also performed at other venues like The Rivoli, Capitol Event Theatre, Circa, and more. Internationally CHAD HUGHES has performed in London, England, Paris, France at Le Baron, as well as the Sea of Galilee in Israel.

CHAD HUGHES has been published in The 'National Post' and 'Hello' Magazine on more than one occasion as well 'Post', 'Nuvo' and 'Toronto Life'. He has filmed several music videos as well as worked on screen in Hollywood, and has just finished playing himself in the up coming independent film "A Wilderness of Mirrors" shot in New York City. He is currently working on his 3rd album of which 3 of his recent singles, a club remix and ringtone have just been made available on iTunes.

CHAD HUGHES's cutting edge performance compliments the diverse nature of his audience as he involves the elements of human sexuality, fashion, technological advancements, global economy and standard of living.
